Attorney Marc T. Miller represents individuals and businesses in a wide range of complex litigation matters.

His recent cases have included construction litigation, contract disputes, business torts, employment disputes, real property litigation, foreclosures, and landlord/tenant disputes. Attorney Miller has significant litigation and appellate experience, as well as considerable experience representing both creditors and debtors in bankruptcy proceedings.

Throughout his career, Attorney Miller has always focused on the representation of individuals and businesses engaged in commercial disputes and those dealing with financial distress. He is very familiar with the unexpected challenges individuals and businesses can face and well able to assist clients through those challenges.

Attorney Miller began his legal career as a judicial law clerk. His understanding of the judicial system has only increased since then, through his many years of association with a boutique firm in Norwalk and his service Of Counsel to a large Bridgeport firm. He has been admitted to practice in the State of Connecticut, the State of New York, the District of Columbia, the U.S. District Court for the District of Connecticut, the Southern District of New York, the Eastern District of New York, the Second Circuit Court of Appeals, and the Supreme Court of the United States.

In recognition of his accomplishments, Attorney Miller was listed in New England Super Lawyers Magazine® as a Connecticut Rising Star for Commercial Litigation in 2018. For Details, go to Superlawyers.com®

Attorney Miller earned his J.D. from the University of Connecticut after earning his B.A. in Economics and Philosophy from Skidmore College. He is a native Vermonter, but now resides in Woodbridge with his wife and beagle.
